

TSUDA UNIVERSITY

Symposium - Intercultural Communication for a Diverse Japan

*An event to commemorate the opening of two new courses in the Department of English -
Intercultural Communication Studies and Japan Studies in English*

6th July, 2019 (Saturday) 10:15 - 15:30

Tsuda University, Sendagaya Campus

With Japan growing increasingly diverse due to shifting demographics and increasing migration, how can we as students, educators, and citizens of Japan, work to increase cultural awareness and build intercultural communication competency?

Registration	10:15 - 10:30
Opening Remarks	10:30 - 10:40
Keynote Immigrant Japan: Mobility and Belonging in an Ethno-nationalist Society Professor Gracia Liu-Farrer Graduate School of Asia Pacific Studies, Waseda University	10:40 - 11:45
Lunch break (light refreshments provided)	11:45 - 12:45
Workshop Intercultural Competence Development and Communicating Across Difference	12:45 - 15:30

All welcome. Registration required (by 2nd July, 2019).
Register at <https://forms.gle/NJUMwfNdPy2FZUEZ9> or use the QR code.

Venue: SA201 Sendagaya Campus, Tsuda University, Sendagaya 1-18-24, Tokyo
Closest Stations: Sendagaya station (JR Chuo-Sobu Line) / Kokuritsu-Kyogijo station (Toei Oedo Line)

Inquires: eiji@tsuda.ac.jp

www.tsuda.ac.jp

津田塾大学
TSUDA UNIVERSITY